

S1 SEEN DICTATION TEST

During weekends my family loves eating in restaurants. My dad's favourite dish is grilled fish and shark fin soup. He also loves red chili hotpot because it is spicy! My mum prefers healthy dishes like salads or steamed vegetables. She loves brown sugar rice pudding and bird's nest egg tarts too. Both my parents always finish their meal with some Chinese tea which is bitter but great for digestion.

As for me, I simply love the crispy taste of deep-fried chicken and stir-fried vegetables. Boiled or steamed food is too bland. Sometimes I order French fries but my mum thinks it is unhealthy because it is oily. She always tells me not to eat too many sweet or greasy snacks but I think they are delicious! My favourite pudding is any kind of rich, creamy cheesecake. Do you have a favourite dish?
